The Group Therapy program offers training in psychodynamic group therapy to mental health professionals who are interested in improving their group therapy skills. Special aspects of the program include exposure to leading practitioners in the field and individual tutorial work with a faculty member. Courses meet on Tuesday evenings and at alternative times throughout the week in New York City and Westchester. The full curriculum leads to a certificate in Psychoanalytic Group Therapy.

The Training Institute for Mental Health offers training and services without regard to sex, age, race, religion, sexual orientation, country of origin, or ethnic background.
